

Do you want to make a difference or become different in your relationships?

That is the question.

God is different.

God's Spirit is different.

God's Wisdom is different.

God's Law is different.

God's Law is different. The Hebrew word for Law is Torah. The meaning of Torah in Hebrews is instruction, direction, prophetic teaching.

So basically God's Law is here for your instruction and direction and prophetic teaching.

One thing about the law is that it only has power, as long as you are alive, when you die the law has no power over you.

For instance a wife is joined by the law to her husband as long as her husband lives, but if her husband dies, the wife is free and discharged from the law concerning her husband. A wife will be held an adulteress if she unites herself to another man while her husband lives, the wife is sinning by not being faithful in marriage. Likewise a husband will be held an adulterer if he lies with another woman as long as his wife lives, because he is not being faithful in the marriage union. But if the husband (or the wife) dies, the marriage Law no longer is binding on the wife (or the husband).

He or she is free from that Law.

God's Law is the same, when you die you are free from God's Law, but God's Law is also different.

God's Law is different and the difference lies in that God's Law are Blessings!!!.

God's Law is different and the difference lies in that God's Law are for your Change!!!.

God's Law is different and the difference lies in that God's Law has provided you Freedom from the Law by sending His Only Son to die for you.

Do you want to live a Lawless life or a life following God's Law?
