

Do you want your relationship or religion to decide about your Soul?

That is the question.

When you have a relationship with the Lord, you will come to realize that it's a relationship that is irresistible. A relationship all inclusive of the real motives of your heart, not religion. A relationship which is irreversible to the Change!!!.

An irresistible relationship means a powerful, strong, mighty, great, successful, upright, exceedingly relationship.

An all inclusive relationship means with all your heart, all your might, all your body, all your mind and all your soul.

An irreversible relationship means not able to revoke, to reverse or to turn back; permanent, lasting, enduring.

You have to know that this irresistible, inclusive, irreversible relationship is not an impossible relationship, because the Grace of God is not insufficient.

God's Grace is abundant; full of love, joy, gladness, peace, patience, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, meekness, humility and self-control. God's Grace is an indescribable and inexpressible free Gift.

God's Grace is for your Blessings!!!

God's Grace is for your Change!!!

God's Grace is to make you Different!!!

God's Grace is for your Eternity!!!

If you are going to church every Sunday, celebrating the religious holidays, giving to the poor, reading the Bible, memorizing Bible verses and there is no Change!!! visible in your attitude, attire or attention, is this then a relationship or a religion?

Do you want God's Grace, which is indispensable for your change, or not?
